BATCH: 2014-18 (ME)

Short Bio:

- I am as same as you, still a student. Because, one who doesn't reflect and learn from every moment of one's life, can't blame life for not having grown. A student always learns, so now I am learning from these 2 years, with you by my side.
- Senior Engineer in Analysis Module at Product Development Centre, Larsen & Toubro Industry and Machinery Products IC.
- Worked as design analyst on "Tire Curing Press Structures" for various projects with multiple customers.
- Worked on process development activities as analyst for better utilization and performance of resources for structural simulations.
- Structural simulation support for L&T's Construction Equipment Machinery.
