

National Conference

On the celebration of

Gandhi Jayanti 2021

National Institute of Technology Arunachal Pradesh.

This year, NIT Arunachal Pradesh organized a National Conference on Gandhi Jayanti on virtual mode to pay homage to the Father of the Nation - Mahatma Gandhi. Many faculty members and students participated to pay tribute to our lovingly called Bapuji.

The hosts of the programme Ms. Sweta Rai and Ms. Usha Mary Sharma began with a warm welcome and cited quote of Mahatma Gandhito set the theme of the day. The conference marked the presence of Chief Patron Prof. PinakeshwarMahanta, Director, NIT, AP. In his welcome speech, he emphasized on various initiatives the institute has take into inculcate Gandhian ideas in the campus for developing a healthy environment. His speech clearly stated that the institution is looking forward for more initiatives to Gandhian Philosophy.

Dr. R. P. Sharma, Dean (Student Affairs) and Associate Professor, Dept of Mechanical Engineering formally introduced the Guest of Honour, Prof. Ramesh K Arora, Former Dean, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur and Chief Guest Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Sharma, Vice Chancellor, Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Motihari (Bihar).

Prof. Ramesh K Arora delivered an insightful speech explaining the moral values of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi. He took us through the amazing lifestyle Gandhiji had undergone in different stages of his life and very interestingly highlighted the noteworthy qualities of Gandhiji. Prof. Arora's speech undoubtedly encouraged the participants to follow the principles of the Father of Nation to be self-reliant.

Later, the audience had the privilege to listen to Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Sharma, Vice Chancellor, Mahatma Gandhi Central University, Motihari (Bihar) who highlighted the life and principles of Mahatma Gandhi in his keynote speech. The theme of his speech centered around "Gandhi: The Man".

These thought-provoking speeches were well summarized by Ms. Sweta Rai, student of NITAP. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks given by Dr. Achyuth Sarkar, Assistant Professor, Dept. of CSE, NIT, AP.
