

National Institute of Technology Arunachal Pradesh

Jote, Papumpare, Arunachal Pradesh-791113, India

www.nitap.ac.in

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav
(75th Anniversary of Independence)
Celebration of

National Science Day

Organized by NIT Arunachal Pradesh

Under the Umbrella of

Gandhi Study Centre, NITAP

Introduction about Event

Marking the 75th anniversary of independence, National Science Day was organized by National Institute of Technology, Arunachal Pradesh Under the Umbrella of Gandhi Study Centre, NITAP on 28th February 2022. In this occasion there was a science exhibition followed by 2 expert lectures, which was marked by the presence of esteemed speakers who shed light on the significance and importance of science. Dr. R. P. Sharma was the Organizing Chairman and Dr. Preetisudha Meher & Dr. Shubhajt Das were the Organizing Secretary for the National Seminar.

Speakers and External Experts

Dr. Chandrasekaran

Professor

Department of Mechanical Engineering
NERIST Arunachal Pradesh

Prof. (Dr.) Hui Tag

Professor

Department of Botany
Rajiv Gandhi University
Arunachal Pradesh

About the Program

The program started at 10:30 AM in the morning at NIT Jote Campus. Registrar of NIT Arunachal Pradesh Mr. Uday Khanikar inaugurated the Exhibition by cutting the ribbon which was also graced by the invited Speakers Prof. Chandrasekharan, NERIST and Prof. Hui Tag, RGU, faculties and students of NIT AP. After that Science Exhibition started where around 200 students from Kendriya Vidyalaya NERIST, Kendriya Vidyalaya Naharlagun, Kendriya Vidyalaya I Itanagar, Kendriya Vidyalaya II, Arunodaya Government School Itanagar, Higher secondary School Jote, Rajiv Gandhi Government Polytechnic Itanagar were participated. Prof. Chandrasekharan, NERIST and Prof. Hui Tag, RGU with internal Expert from NIT Arunachal Pradesh Prof. SN Deepa judged the exhibition. Welcome address by the Organizing Secretary Dr. Preetisudha Meher where she warmly welcomed all the dignitaries and elucidated the motive of the seminar after the lunch. Dr. R. P. Sharma, Organizing chair of the program delivered an inspirational speech and told about the profit of book reading to the audience. A technical session held after that, which includes expert lectured from Prof. Chandrasekharan, NERIST and Prof. Hui Tag, RGU. Prof. Chandrasekharan, Professor, Mechanical Engineering, NERIST spoke about Sir C V Raman's biography and discussed about some current prospective of education. Prof. Hui Tag, Professor, Department of Botany, RGU enlightened about how to develop interest of science in students and discussed about the need of collaboration in research. Prof. S. N Deepa, Associate Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering, NIT Arunachal Pradesh enlightened about need of science in her speech and announced the names of the winners. It was followed by vote for thanks by Dr. R, P Sharma at the end of the program. Dr. Preetisudha Meher, Organizing Secretary of the seminar did all the anchoring and coordinated the whole program and also drawn the brief of each speech.

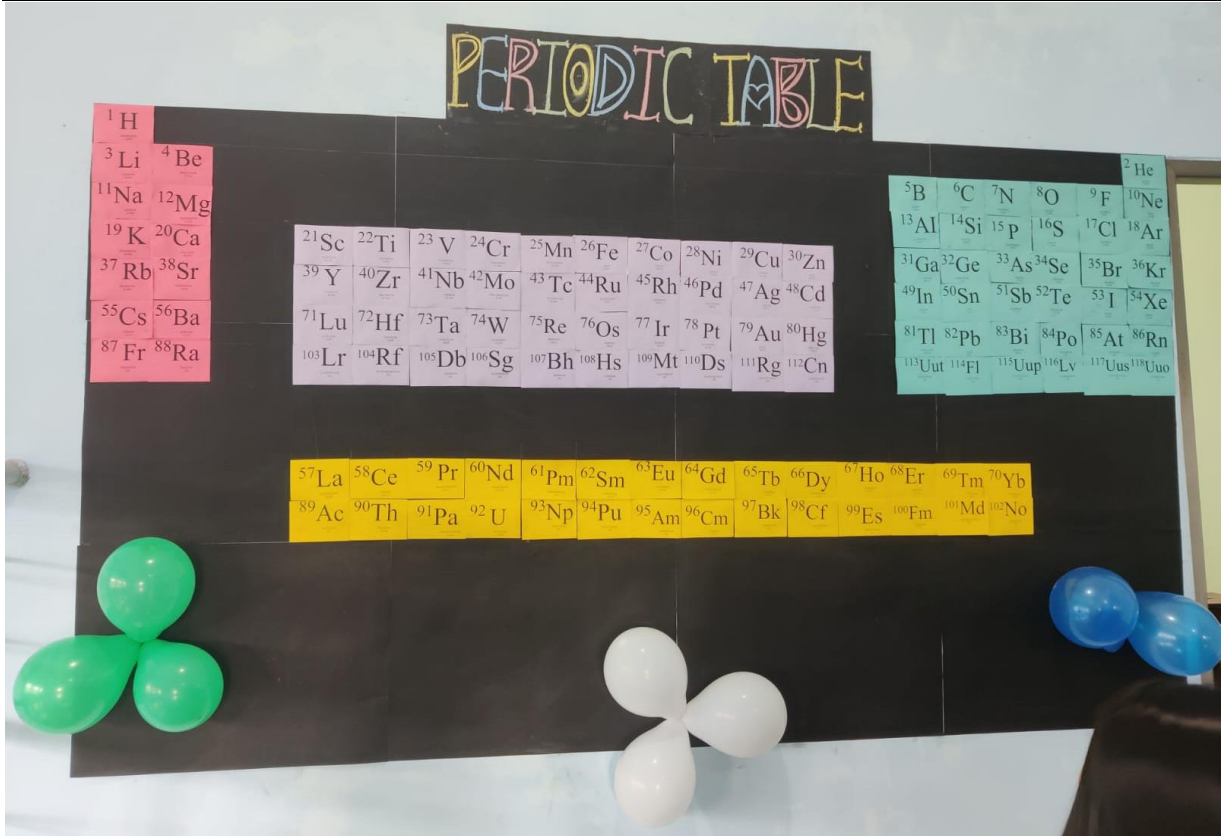

Participants Details

More than 200 students from Kendriya Vidyalaya NERIST, Kendriya Vidyalaya Naharlagun, Kendriya Vidyalaya I Itanagar, Kendriya Vidyalaya II, Arunodaya Government School Itanagar, Higher secondary School Jote, Rajiv Gandhi Government Polytechnic Itanagar were participated. Students and faculties of different departments also attended the Seminar.

Outcomes

All dignitaries and participants could learn the importance of science and learned about the great scientist Sir C V Raman, who got Nobel Prize in discovering Raman Effect and also got Bharat Ratna ward. Through different models brought from different students, participants could more about implementation of science in day to day life. Students and faculties were enlightened more about science and research from the Invited Speeches.

Photos Gallery

Some photos of the National Science Day Celebration at NIT Jote Campus